But on that day I leave this earth the only thing that will matter will be What did Jesus think of my life? I hope it will be, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your Lord." Matt 25:21

Barabbas (No capo, D harmonica)

(Matt 27:15-26, Mark 15:6-15, Lk13:13-25, Jn 18:39-40)

By Paul Ellingsen Inspired by the movie the Passion of the Christ

There is a scene in "The Passion of the Christ" where Barabbas is on the platform with Jesus and Pilate. He takes one look at Jesus, beaten and bloody, and for a moment he gets a very serious look on his face, like he realizes what really happening, and then he goes back to acting like a madman again. That scene is what inspired this song. The Bible doesn't tell us what happened to Barabbas. Did he repent or did he go back to living a rebellious life? We don't know, but this song speculates that he repented.

A Narrow Minded Jesus (No capo, G Harmonica)

(John 14:6, 1st Timothy 2:5, Acts 4:12) By Paul Ellingsen

So often the response of an unbeliever to "Jesus is the only way to heaven" is, "That's awful narrow minded of you" This is my answer to that.

Start with Chorus:

G C D
I believe in a narrow-minded Jesus
Em C D
He knows that He's the only way
Em C D
You might think you can find others

Toilet Paper (Capo 2nd fret, A Harmonica)

(James 4:13-15) By Paul Ellingsen

I was talking to one of my son's, Andrew, and we were talking about how the older you get the faster the years go by, and he said, "Yea Dad, It's like a roll of toilet paper. The closer you get to the end the faster it goes" That sounded to me like it should be a song.

G D Em

Life is like a roll of toilet paper

C D G C

The closer to the end the faster it goes

G D G C G

So just make sure it's Jesus that you know

C D G C G

Duct Tape (Capo 2nd fret, A Harmonica)

Chris Clark, the pastor at Kentucky Lake Cowboy Church, had this Bible that was held together with duct tape. One morning Clay Campbell, the music director, said to Chris, "Ain't no duct tape gonna heal a broken heart. Hey that sounds like a country song" I agreed and made a note of it on my bulletin and later wrote this song.

Chorus:

G D
Ain't No Duct Tape Gonna Heal a Broken Heart

G
Only Jesus can do it right from the start

When your eyes are full of tears

And your heart is full of fear

G D G
Only Jesus can heal a broken heart

Last time: Only Jesus can heal a broken heart
Remember Jesus can heal a broken heart

G D
When you lover says that it's time to go

G
And goes wandering away through the snow

Though her heart's cold as ice

You've been nothin' but nice

G D G
Remember Jesus can heal a broken heart

Duct Tape (Capo 2nd fret)

(page 1 of 2) By Paul Ellingsen

G D
When your job has taken your whole life

G
And given ya nothing but strife

When your boss says here's the door

We don't want ya here no more

G D G
Remember Jesus can heal a broken heart

G D
When even your family lets ya down

G
And it seem like there's no one around

When your friends forsake you

And there's nothin' you can do

G D G
Remember Jesus can heal a broken heart
